You are cordially invited to the:

Sierra Nevada Adaptive Management Project Annual Meeting

November 5th, 2008

Federal Building, 650 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, CA

9:00 am to 12:15 pm and 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm, lunch provided

Morning session (9:00 to 12:15)

The desired outcome of the morning meeting is to present an overview of the research conducted so far by the University of California Science Team and to allow for public interaction and involvement with the project.

- Overviews of this year's research by each of the 6 teams (water, owl, fisher, fire and forest health, spatial and public participation)
- Interactive sessions with each team to allow for public input and dialogue
- Synthesis of the interactive sessions to guide SNAMP for the next year

Morning attendees are welcome to stay for lunch (12:15 to 1:00) and the afternoon session.

Afternoon agency leader session (1:00 to 3:00)

The goal for the afternoon session is to brief leaders of state and federal agencies on the status of the SNAMP project.

- History and background of SNAMP and support by agency leaders
- Brief research highlights from the UC Science Team
- Project level successes and challenges
- What's next for SNAMP
- Open commentary from public
- Question and answer session
