

Lessons in Collaborative Adaptive Management (CAM)
for Natural Resource Managers and Stakeholders
January 31, 2013, 9am to Noon

UC Cooperative Extension, 11477 E Ave., Dewitt Center, Auburn, CA

Desired Outcomes:

- To improve communication and facilitation skills between Natural Resource Managers and Stakeholders
- To learn effective Collaborative Adaptive Management and Mutual Learning techniques
- To increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the collaboration process

WHAT	How	Time
I. Welcome and overview Meeting goals and agenda	Presentation and Q&A	9:00 - 9:10 10 minutes
II. Definition & Purpose of CAM – what is your role?	Presentation and discussion	9:10 - 9:30 20 minutes
III. Objectives of essential facilitation - building agreement - defining and measuring success	Presentation and discussion	9:30 - 9:55 25 minutes
IV. Understanding constraints - environmental, economic, staffing, confidentiality, scientific, etc	Presentation and discussion	9:55 – 10:15 20 minutes

WHAT	How	Time
V. Content vs Process	Presentation and discussion	10:15 - 10:35 20 minutes
Break		10:35 – 10:45 10 minutes
VI. Listening as an Ally	Presentation and discussion	10:45 – 11:05 20 minutes
VII. Stages of discussion	Presentation and discussion	11:05 - 11:25 20 minutes
VIII: The decision making process	Presentation and discussion	11:25 – 11:45 20 minutes
IX. Wrap up: next steps and evaluation	Discussion	11:45 - 12:00 15 minutes